

Open Government, Information and Privacy General Consent to Exchange Information and Authority to Act on Client's Behalf

This form is to be completed by Open Government, Information and Privacy (OGIP) Unit clients as follows:

- Part A: when you give consent for OGIP to exchange personal information with a nominated third party, and/or
- Part B: when you authorise a person or organisation to act on your behalf.

For assistance with completing this form, contact the OGIP Unit, Department of Communities and Justice (the Department) on (02) 9716 2662 or infoandprivacy@dcj.nsw.gov.au. Please mark relevant boxes with a . If you need more writing space to answer a question, please include information on a separate page and attach it to this form.

Part A: Client Consent to exchange personal information

When you complete and sign this section of the form, you are consenting to:

- OGIP exchanging information (including collecting, using and disclosing information) with a nominated third party person/agency, and
- the nominated third party person/agency giving and/or receiving information about you, to and/or from, the OGIP Unit.

Any information collected/exchanged may be recorded on the Department's electronic systems.

Part B: Authority to Act on client's behalf

When you complete and sign this section of the form, the nominated person/agency that is named by you is authorised to act on your behalf in all matters relating to your matter being handled by the OGIP Unit, including:

- completing relevant documentation and making enquiries and changes on your behalf, and
- receiving all relevant communications including correspondence and any information/outcome released to you.

A nominated person/agency that you authorise to act on your behalf can be a partner, a friend, a family member, or a professional/agency. This list is not limited, and you may change this arrangement at any time. Authorising a person/agency to act on your behalf does not take away your right to contact the OGIP Unit or the Department if you need to do so.

Your right to Privacy

DCJ Privacy Notice

This privacy notice applies to the Department. The Department and its related agencies/divisions comply with NSW privacy legislation when collecting and managing, personal and health information. The information we collect from you (or from an authorised third party) will be held by the Department. Your personal information will be used for the purpose(s) it was collected (for example to provide services to you) or any related, secondary purpose. We may also use your information within the Department as a whole to plan, coordinate and improve the way we provide services. The Department is legally authorised to disclose information to outside bodies in certain circumstances.

Further information about your privacy rights and how you can access your personal information can be found on the Department's Privacy Notice available on the Department's website at: <https://www.dcj.nsw.gov.au/statements/privacy.html> or by calling: 02 9716 2662.

The Department's Privacy Management Plan (PMP) explains how the Department complies with its obligations under the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002. The Department's PMP can be found on the Department's website at <https://www.dcj.nsw.gov.au/statements/privacy/privacy-management-plan.html>

Generally you have the right to access and correct the information if you believe that it is incorrect. If you wish to do so, please contact the Open Government, Information and Privacy Unit at infoandprivacy@dcj.nsw.gov.au or call 02 9716 2662.

General Consent to Exchange Information and Authority to Act on Client's Behalf

Please complete a separate form for each person and/or agency you would like to nominate to give consent to exchange information and/or give them authority to act on your behalf.
